

HIKE AT COTOPAXI NATIONAL PARK (4,600 – 4,700 mts.)

We will depart after breakfast. While heading south to the Pan-American high way we will cross by the Avenue of the Volcanoes. On the way we will enjoy a spectacular view of some of the peaks nearby such as: Pasochoa, Rumiñahui, Illinizas North and South, etc. In the Park, we will observe the highlands, some fauna and plants.

We will stop at the Museum for a short visit. Then, we will continue to Limpiopungo Lake at 3.800mts the base of Cotopaxi volcano. We can take pictures, go for a short hike and then continue towards the parking lot 4.600mts. From here, we will hike to José Ribas Refuge for about 45 minutes. At the refuge we will rest, have lunch and after lunch, we will continue to the glacier and stay there for a little while then return to the Parking lot and finally to the car. Drive back to Quito.

Price includes:

Private transportation, English-speaking guide, lunch

Price does not include:

Personal equipment, travel insurance, personal expenses, beverages and tips

What to bring:

Rain wear, sun cream, sunglasses, hat with brim, warm clothing, small pack, camera